THIRD ARMY INCREASES PRESSURE ON METZ

Battle for French Fortress City Fast Coming to Climax

With Escape Gap Narrowed to Eight Miles Front Dispatch Declares Fall of Bastion Appears Matter of Days

CAPTURE OF THIONVILLE STILL UNCONFIRMED

By WILLIAM FRYE
London, Nov. 15.—(P)—American Third Army Doughboys, battling through snow and sleet, captured three more forts guarding Metz today, by-passed two others and reached points less than two miles from the citadel on both south and west.

To the north, the British offensive, launched last night from a jumping off point at the junction of the Noord and Wessem canals, drove forward nearly three miles.

Lt. Gen. Sir Miles Dempsey's troops were 37 miles from the Ruhr city of Duisburg, and a spokesman said: "We are pushing on fast and, for the present at least, there is nothing much in sight to stop us."

South of Metz American Seventh Army troops pushed doggedly through the deepening snowfields of the Vosges foothills.

Operations along the entire front were hampered by the weather and there were no reports of air support in any sector.

Fort Hubert and Jussy, west of Metz, fell to the 95th Infantry Division which reached a point two miles from the city after a gain of a mile and a half. Fort Illange, just south of Thionville fell to Americans who stormed the bastion after the German commander had refused to surrender. Previously Fort Thionville, just north of the city, and Fort Koenigsmacher, across the Moselle to the north-east had been captured.

In sweeping up Fort Hubert and Jussy the 95th Infantry Division bypassed Fort Driant and its twin Fort Jeanne D'Arc in their head-on thrust toward Metz from the west.

A German broadcast earlier had said the Americans had opened assaults on Driant, which the enemy successfully defended against a thrust two months ago, and Jeanne D'Arc.

Immediately south of Metz, American troops which captured forts L'Aisme and L'Yser, were driving toward Magny, less than a mile from the city, after capturing Pouilly and the ridge of the same name. East of this point, other Americans seized Peltre, 2½ miles southeast of Metz. German resistance in this area was reported stiffening.

Some 150 miles to the north the British Second Army had joined the Allies' mounting November offensive. (Turn to Page Nine)

Sixth Death Occurs In Trolley Crash

Pittsburgh, Nov. 15.—(P)—The death toll in the Munhall street car collision climbed to six with the death last night of Alonzo B. Pather, of Homestead.

Gaither was one of 36 injured aboard the ill-fated No. 55 street car which plowed into the rear of a No. 60 yesterday in the fog in Eighth avenue, Munhall.

"Nineteen of the injured, most of them war veterans, were detained in Homestead hospital."

Coroner William D. McClelland, meanwhile, pressed an investigation into the causes of the accident.

Associated Press Bulletins

London, Nov. 15.—(P)—Richard Law, undersecretary of state, told the house of commons today the British government saw no reason why any country which has not made a contribution to the United Nations' war effort should be represented at any discussion in the peace settlement.

Istanbul, Nov. 14.—(Delayed)—(P)—Without explanation, the government today ordered Turkish Black Sea shipping confined to ports from sunset to sunrise. A similar order imposed last spring was lifted during the summer.

Moscow, Nov. 15.—(P)—The official Soviet news agency, Tass, reported today that the Catholic University at Lublin, closed for five years during the German occupation of Poland, had held its first classes after a formal reopening ceremony.

Moscow, Nov. 15.—(P)—Konstantin Hoffman, political commentator for Red Star, Soviet military organ, asserted today that the recent resignation of Premier Mohamed Saad and his Iranian cabinet demonstrated that "no government conducting a policy hostile to the U. S. S. R. can ever retain power in Iran."

Paris, Nov. 15.—(P)—General Charles De Gaulle will leave shortly for a visit to Moscow on the invitation of Marshal Stalin, the government announced today.

Chungking, Nov. 15.—(P)—Liang Han-Chao, minister of information, said today that the final answer to the question of whether there was any prospect of agreement in negotiations between the Chungking government and the Chinese Communists "can only come from Yenan," capital of Communist China.

Southeast Asia Headquarters, Kandy, Ceylon, Nov. 15.—(P)—Fifth Indian Division troops advancing on the Japanese Burma stronghold of Kalemoy from the west have linked with east African forces attacking from the north, a communique announced tonight.

REDS DRIVING UPON CAPITAL OF HUNGARY

Evacuation of Jaszbereny By German Troops Reported In Berlin Broadcast

CASUALTIES MOUNTING

BULLETIN

London, Nov. 15.—(P)—German troops have evacuated the important communications center of Jaszbereny, 35 miles due east of Budapest, the Berlin radio said today. The reported loss of the bitterly contested city of 30,000 came after the Red army wheeled upon the Hungarian capital from several directions and liquidated a German bridgehead east of the Danube and south of Budapest. Moscow said 30 towns had been overrun.

London, Nov. 15.—(P)—The Red army has liquidated the enemy bridgehead on the east bank of the Danube river south of Budapest, and has straightened its lines with advances south and northeast of the besieged Hungarian capital netting an additional 30 towns, Moscow announced today.

Front dispatches said the bodies of hundreds of enemy dead littered the captured railway junction of Nagykata, 27 miles east of Budapest. From the junction Russian cavalry and infantry probed westward toward the capital and eastward in the direction of the enemy stronghold of Jaszbereny.

Violent fighting was reported all along the line extending 80 miles from near Budapest to south of the railway junction of Miskolc in northeastern Hungary.

Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's troops, holding fast to their positions within easy medium artillery range of Budapest on the south, spearheaded north and northwest from Monor, and captured Uri and Peci in gains of three to five miles.

Seizure of Solt and Duna, Hungary, 45 and 42 miles south of Budapest, erased the enemy bridgehead on the east bank of the Danube. The Berlin radio said the Russians hurled three infantry divisions against the Nazis, who withdrew to newly-prepared positions on the west bank.

A Moscow dispatch said 1,200 prisoners were taken in the bridgehead battle, and hundreds more of the enemy drowned in an attempt to flee across the river.

Hungary seemed likely to remain the main theater of action on the eastern front, the Moscow dispatch added, for there was little hint of any attempt in the near future to break the stalemate in Poland or East Prussia.

A broadcast communique from Marshal Tito announced that his Yugoslav partisans had captured Skopje, important rail junction in southern Yugoslavia and key to the Vardar valley route through the Balkans. The announcement said the Germans were pursued out of the town, and that 1,700 were killed and 995 captured.

Opinion Grows Byrnes May Be New Secretary of State

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

Washington, Nov. 15.—(P)—Senators talked behind the backs of their hands today about a possibility that James F. Byrnes might become secretary of state.

Several factors fitting together like a jigsaw puzzle were responsible for their conjectures that the war mobilization director might move into the state department.

Apparently Secretary Hull, vitally interested in finishing preparations for peace, wants to keep the job. And evidently he can so far as President Roosevelt is concerned.

But Hull's doctors may have different ideas. The aged Tennesseean has been ill for weeks. At the moment, his physicians just don't know whether he will be able to return to his strenuous cabinet duties.

In the event he can't, some legislators see Byrnes as a logical successor. This, they say, is why: Perhaps no man in the administration would have as much influence as Byrnes in getting through the senate the treaties or international compacts designed to perpetuate the forthcoming peace.

A former senator from South Carolina, Byrnes has retained the affection and respect of a large number of his former colleagues, Republicans among them. And it will take both Republicans and Democrats to supply the two-thirds vote needed for treaty ratification.

Byrnes and Hull, the latter a former senator too, are described by associates as "great friends." Accordingly, they say, Hull might not be as reluctant to step aside in favor of Byrnes as he would be to make way for someone else.

Proposing an overhauling of the act, Hatch told reporters he favored retaining the $5,000 ceiling on individual contributions with "loopholes" plugged to prevent gifts of up to that amount to more than one political committee.

Lifting of the $3,000,000 top on committee spending would discourage the practice of setting up numerous independent committees "for the obvious purpose of circumventing the limitation," Hatch said.

In a separate interview, Chairman Green (D-R-I) of the senate campaign expenditures committee asserted that the money restrictions had been evaded in this year's campaign.

MINERS BELIEVED DEAD
Wilkes-Barre, Nov. 15.—(P)—Although headway was being made last night in efforts to rescue three miners trapped underground Saturday, little hope was held that they would be found alive. A blast released huge volumes of water, trapping the men.

Work to Resume At Wright Plant
Washington, Nov. 15.—(P)—Prodded by the War Labor Board, officers of the Wright Aircraft Supervision Association agreed today to call off a strike at the five New Jersey plants producing B-29 Super-Fortress engines.

WLB Chairman William H. Davis said work "must be resumed tomorrow morning" and, after a brief huddle, Attorney John F. Butler and the officers and plant representatives of the Independent union said they would direct workers at a meeting tonight to return to work.

An estimated 2,900 members of the union are on strike at the Paterson and four other north Jersey plants of the Wright Aeronautical Corp. The action left more than 32,000 workers idle.

Davis earlier had said that every power of the government would be invoked to halt the strike.

WAC Corp. Credited With Saving Lives of Bomber Crew
An Eighth Air Force Station, England, Nov. 15.—(P)—A WAC corporal was credited officially today with saving the lives of the crew of a Liberator bomber which crashed and burned on a test flight during which she was aboard as an observer.

The story was disclosed with the announcement that Corp. Grace Sharkey of Philadelphia, Pa., had been recommended for the soldier's medal and with the debut of a new Liberator which the grateful crew of the wrecked plane have named "Lady Grace."

Corp. Sharkey's account of the crashup and her part in rescuing the crew is very matter of fact.

"The ship crashed and was burning fiercely," she recalls. "Smoke filled the interior and everyone seemed too stunned to move. For a minute I thought we were trapped. The ship was a mess, and the only way out seemed to be through the nose."

"I kicked out the plexiglass and crawled through the opening. Some of the other crew members were stirring by then and I helped them out. The navigator was right behind me. The pilot and I helped the radio operator, last man in the plane, out just in time."

MANILA RAID NETS BAG OF 14 JAP SHIPS

Three Warships and Floating Dock Included In Score Reported By Admiral Nimitz

28 PLANES DESTROYED

By CHARLES H. MCMURTRY

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Pearl Harbor, Nov. 15.—(P)—An other American carrier plane raid on Japanese shipping and facilities in Manila Bay left 14 ships—including three warships—sunk or damaged, a floating dock destroyed and at least 28 imperial planes wiped out.

The Sunday assault was announced last night by Adm. Chester W. Nimitz. One ship of the American carrier task force was damaged during a Japanese aerial attack.

(Japanese broadcasters said earlier that 800 attacking planes hit the Manila area, and claimed one American battleship was sunk by suicide pilot east of Luzon island.)

Admiral Nimitz said two destroyers in Manila Bay exploded under the vicious American attack. While these were not listed as sunk in the communique, they could be termed probables. A third warship, a light cruiser, was left badly damaged.

The attacking force of Hellcats, Avengers and Helldivers tore up numerous docks in Manila Bay and in the Cavite navy yard, and strafed Legaspi, Manila and Clark airfields, damaging at least temporarily 120 to 140 single and twin engine Japanese planes caught on the ground.

Eighteen or 20 interceptors were shot down over Luzon, and 10 others were destroyed as they attacked the carrier force command by Rear Adm. Frederick C. Sherman.

In fresh assaults Saturday the Palau islands, Marine Corsairs sank a small enemy vessel offshore. Hellcats and Liberators bombed Koror, Malakal and Arakabesan islets.

Two Jima in the Bonin group, only 750 miles south of Tokyo, were bombed by a single search Liberator on Saturday, and on Monday planes from fleet airwing one bombed various of the Bonins, scoring near misses on an escort vessel and a medium cargo ship.

How much credit will be required—public and private—remains to be determined. But France alone plans to procure about $2,000,000, 000 worth of goods in this country during the next 12 months and hopes to get most of them on credit.

So far two main ideas are developing as far as the government's part of the program is concerned. First is to expand the authority of the export-import bank several times over and remove present restrictions which prevent it from making loans in the European area. The bank's present lending authority is $700,000,000.

Second is to set up a new agency (Turn to Page Nine)

Donnell Winner In Missouri Race
Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 15.—(P)—Forrest C. Donnell, a solemn, homely Republican who has the knack of making 50,000 Democrats change their ballots so they can vote for him, apparently has succeeded Bennett Champ Clark, a Democrat, in the U. S. Senate.

Donnell, who during his four years as Missouri's governor was a lonely Republican almost entirely surrounded by Democrats, again has galloped approximately 50,000 votes ahead of his ticket. More than a week after the election, and with less than 20,000 absentee ballots to count, he is leading State Attorney General Roy McKeltrick by 3,590 votes.

Missouri's other senatorial post also must be filled. For Sen. Truman is moving on to the vice presidency. Gov.-Elect Phil Donnelly, a Democrat, isn't expected to make a decision on Truman's successor, at least publicly, until after his inauguration in January.

PRR Troop Train Figures In Wreck
Newport, Pa., Nov. 15.—(P)—Six men were injured, two seriously, in a wreck involving two freight trains and a special passenger train carrying troops here last night on the Pennsylvania Railroad's main line.

A westbound freight train of 82 cars, pulled by two locomotives, crashed head-on with an eastbound train of 165 cars and one locomotive in the first phase of the accident, derailing all three engines and the first two tank cars on each train. A short time later the passenger train sideswiped some of the wreckage.

Railroad officials said that a block operator in the Newport tower was "in error" in allowing both freight trains to enter the same block.

Fortunately, the officials continued the eastbound train stopped before the crash occurred.

Four main lines were blocked by the wreckage.

PHILLY CIGARET FOLL
Philadelphia, Nov. 15.—(P)—Cigarette supplies are down 40 per cent and demand is up 250 per cent in Philadelphia, a poll conducted by the Philadelphia Record revealed last night. Cigarette "black markets" are currently being investigated by OPA agents.

New Decree Issued By Nazi Leaders

London, Nov. 15.—(P)—The Nazi party, using the name of long-silent Adolf Hitler, clamped a tighter hold on the retreating German army today.

A new decree ordered all German officers and noncommissioned officers who were members of the Nazi party to "educate their men in the Nazi sense," both on duty and off duty. Previously, men were required to leave the party during their periods in the armed service.

The decree was broadcast by the Transocean propaganda service.

The London Times declared today there no longer seemed any doubt that Heinrich Himmler was the acting leader of Germany, adding that no one had appeared to challenge extension of his powers.

In a strategic maneuver, infantrymen of the 24th Division swung from the west of the Japanese front line regiment near Limon, while other units of the 24th maintained pressure along the line from the north. First Cavalry (dis-mounted) units closed in from captured Hill 1525 and Mt. Cataboran to the east in a nutcracker-like move.

In his communique today Gen. Douglas MacArthur spoke of the movement as a "wide envelopment" and declared it is "threatening the Yamashita line below Limon." He said American artillery was giving the infantrymen highly effective close support and destroying numerous Japanese gun positions.

At the same time American long range guns were raking the Japanese supply line, twisting up through the mountains from Ormoc, making reinforcement of Japanese troops at Limon costly and uncertain.

Elements of the 96th American infantry division gained a mountain crest looking down toward Ormoc, 14 miles to the west, in the vicinity of Alto peak.

The American Seventh Division at Zamboanga on the west Leyte coast, near the mouth of Ormoc Bay, repulsed a small enemy force attempting to land from barges, General MacArthur reported.

This was the first news of the seventh in more than a week.

Elements of five Japanese divisions are hemmed in by the Americans, who hold high ground on three sides of Limon and along the east side of narrow valley leading south to Ormoc. On the west side of the valley are more high mountains and an abrupt slope to the sea.

MONTONE CROSSED BY EIGHTH ARMY
Rome, Nov. 15.—(P)—Eighth Army forces have crossed the Montone river more than two miles northwest of Forlì on the highway to Bologna. Allied headquarters announced today.

In the Apennine foothills to the south the Germans made a slight withdrawal. It was believed they would attempt to hold positions along the canalized river Cosina, which the highway crosses just west of the Montone.

The crossing of the Montone represented a widening advance by the Eighth Army up the Po valley toward Faenza, next major city on the highway.

Andorra Occupied By French Forces
Paris, Nov. 15.—(P)—French gendarmes occupied the little autonomous state of Andorra in the Pyrenees late Tuesday, the foreign office announced today.

A spokesman said Gen. Charles De Gaulle made the decision as ex-officio co-prince of Andorra and that the action was "a preventive measure" to insure security and maintain order throughout the winter months.

Andorra embraces 191 square miles at the French-Spanish frontier on the south slopes of the mountains. Rich iron mines, and valuable forests lie in its cold limits. Most of the few thousand inhabitants are shepherds. Maximum length of the country is 17 miles and its maximum width is 18.

Leyte's Ex-Governor Is Not Only in Jail But Out of a Job
Leyte, Philippines, Nov. 15.—(P)—Leyte's ex-governor is not only out of a job, he is also in jail. He also would like to stay there.

And if he writes a nice letter, the present governor may let him.

The ex-governor is Salazar, who did his governing under the Japanese. When the Americans came back, he was one of 158 suspected or known collaborators promptly tossed into the local lock-up, without benefit of elaborate trial.

Now, with most of Leyte safely in American hands, a board of inquiry has decided it is time to consider the justice or injustice of the incarceration.

Mañ. Gen. Basilio J. Valdez, chairman of the current Leyte government, has promised that each of the suspects shall have a fair hearing and those against whom no specific charges are lodged will be released—on parole, required to stay in the town of Leyte, but released none the less.

The entire plan has been opposed by the current Leyte governor, One Kangleon, who wants to keep the entire 158 family in jail until his guerrilla fighters can spare the time to come to town and file charges against them.

McEntee, president of local 33, State, County and Municipal Workers, AFL, told a city council committee yesterday that union leaders may be unable to prevent a walkout of some 5,000 public works employees if there is further delay in approving a new contract. Three thousand of the workers staged a stoppage last January.

Naval authorities said it was probably his first jump and that he was believed to have prepared his own chute.

Global Observance to Mark Book Week, November 12-18

THIS year—the 200th anniversary of the publication of the first book for children—Book Week, November 12-18, is expanding overseas. Arrangements have been made for simultaneous celebrations in England, Brazil, Russia, Mexico, India, and many other countries. Book Week Headquarters have united their sponsoring committee of national organizations, among them: American Library Association, National Education Association, National Congress of Parents and Teachers, Child Study Association of America, National Recreation Association, Pan-American Union, Women's Council for Post-War Europe, Boy and Girl Scouts, and Fire Girls and 4-H Clubs. During Book Week, libraries, schools and bookstores all over the United States have special exhibits of books. Each year a central theme is selected, such as "Build a Future With Books," "New Books — New Friends," and currently "United Through Books." Lists of books and special Book Week programs are given on the radio; stories are carried in newspapers and magazines. In some cities the mayor makes a proclamation about Book Week, and in some states the governor also makes a proclamation. Various women's organizations have meetings at which guest speakers talk about children's books. Some of these groups raise funds to buy new books for the library, or to start a new library. This year Children's Book Week Committees, under the leadership of National Headquarters at 62 West 45th Street, New York 19, N. Y., are being formed in communities all over the country. It will be the aim of these local committees to literally "unite" the whole community through books. National Headquarters is opening Book Week with a gala luncheon on November 11, in the Grand Ball Room of the Hotel Astor in New York. Participating organizations will make presentations of books to the children of Europe, the Child Study Association will make its annual award for the best book for children dealing with current problems, and there will be one or two nationally famous speakers.

CANNED VITAMIN C record fruit crop forecast for 1945 means more canned citrus and fruit juices for civilians, and an even larger percentage of canned citrus for the armed forces. The Army Medical Corps discovered that the Vitamin C foods help men withstand the effects of high altitudes, under-water pressure, and extreme climatic conditions.

We have 4,300,000 jobs to do today"

THESE ARE BUSY DAYS for everybody in the telephone business. About 4,300,000 Toll and Long Distance messages go over the lines in the average business day. (That's in addition to more than 100,000,000 daily local conversations.)

We appreciate your help, especially when you're on a line to a war-busy center and the Long Distance operator says—"Please limit your call to 5 minutes."

Warren National Offers 2nd House - of - the - Month Plan

The November "House of the Month" suggestion from the Warren National Bank appears in an advertisement in today's Times-Mirror. Pictures and floor plans describe this as "The Kingsley", a conventional type of home with a center hall, living room, dining room, and kitchen on the first floor and three bedrooms and bath on the second floor with ample closet space. Like other homes which will be presented the Kingsley has been designed to meet the standards and construction requirements of the FHA and the electrical layout has been checked and approved by the National Adequate Wiring Bureau to provide not only for ordinary needs but for those of the future as well.

The bank has on hand complete blue prints and specifications for this House of the Month and has a display in its lobby showing pictures of other recent houses suggested in this plan for those who are looking forward to the time after the war when they can build their own homes and who are getting ready for this time by saving for such a purpose.

OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Anderson, of North Warren, have received a large picture, released by the Navy Department, of a Jap bombing attack on one of our destroyers on which their son, Dean C. Anderson was a gunner at the time.

The destroyer was credited with shooting down five of the enemy planes before receiving two direct hits, after which it made its way back to the States for repairs.

The picture bears the name of the ship and the place where the action occurred.

Anderson has taken part in nearly all of the major invasions of the Pacific, having been on active duty for the past two years. His most recent action was in the invasion of the Philippines.

He writes that "everything is fine but I haven't much chance to write, as things happen fast now."

Anderson, graduate of the local high school, now holds the responsible rating of fire controlman.

Pvt. Joseph Rankin, stationed at Camp Blanding, Fla., is here with his family for a ten-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rankin, 22½ Water street.

Sgt. Gail Graham is home on 15-day furlough, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Graham. Sgt. Graham is instructor in aeronautics and directs his own dance band at Keesler Field, Miss.

Paul F. Pring, stationed at Norfolk, Va., is home on 15-day leave to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pring, Warren RD 3.

Never cut up or peel fruits and vegetables ahead of the time you are planning to serve them—you'll lose certain vitamins.

Russell Boy Plenty Busy In England

During more than 30 months of military service in England, Sgt. Ray P. Thompson, 25, of Russell, has done a lot of things for the army, a few of which are recounted for the interest of his friends in the following dispatch from an Eighth Air Force bomber station, somewhere in England:

From the time he landed in North Ireland in May, 1942, Sgt. Thompson, son of Mrs. Fred Thompson, of Russell, and formerly associated with the R. G. Dawson Company in Warren, has been plenty busy.

For many months he served with the Quartermaster Corps, helping to pile up supplies for the invasion of North Africa and later for the assault on France.

He was transferred to an ordnance unit at an Eighth Air Force B-17 Flying Fortress station in May, 1943, and for more than a year now has directed the loading of bombs for the veteran 390th bombardment group.

Recently Sgt. Thompson passed a milestone when he watched the number of explosives dropped on enemy targets in Europe by his group pass 35,000 tons.

Among the first men from the Warren area to enter military service, Sgt. Thompson, a graduate of Russell High School and Hoff Business College, Warren, was active in the Warren Chapter of DeMolay before leaving civilian life.

His group holds a Presidential Citation for its daring and skillful attack on key Nazi ball bearing factories at Schweinfurt, Germany, in October, 1943. During more than 200 missions against German objectives, the group has destroyed or probably destroyed close to 600 enemy fighters.

Cecilia Burch Starts Training

A special dispatch from Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., indicates that Pvt. Carolyn Cecilia Burch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Burch, 118 Main avenue, has started her basic training at the Third WAC training center at that place.

Pvt. Burch is the third member of her family now in service. Two of the new WAC's brothers, Capt. Charles Burch, and Lt. Howard C. Burch, are in the Army Air Corps.

Prior to her enlistment, Pvt. Burch was a member of the faculty of Beatty school, an instructor in English. In conjunction with her school and social activities, she has served as president of the College Women's Club and as a delegate to the meetings of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association. She is also affiliated with the National Educational Association, the Warren Borough Teachers' Association, the Warren College Club, Warren Players and the YWCA.

On her graduation from Erie Academy High School, she studied at Pennsylvania State College, where she received her bachelor of science and master of education degrees.

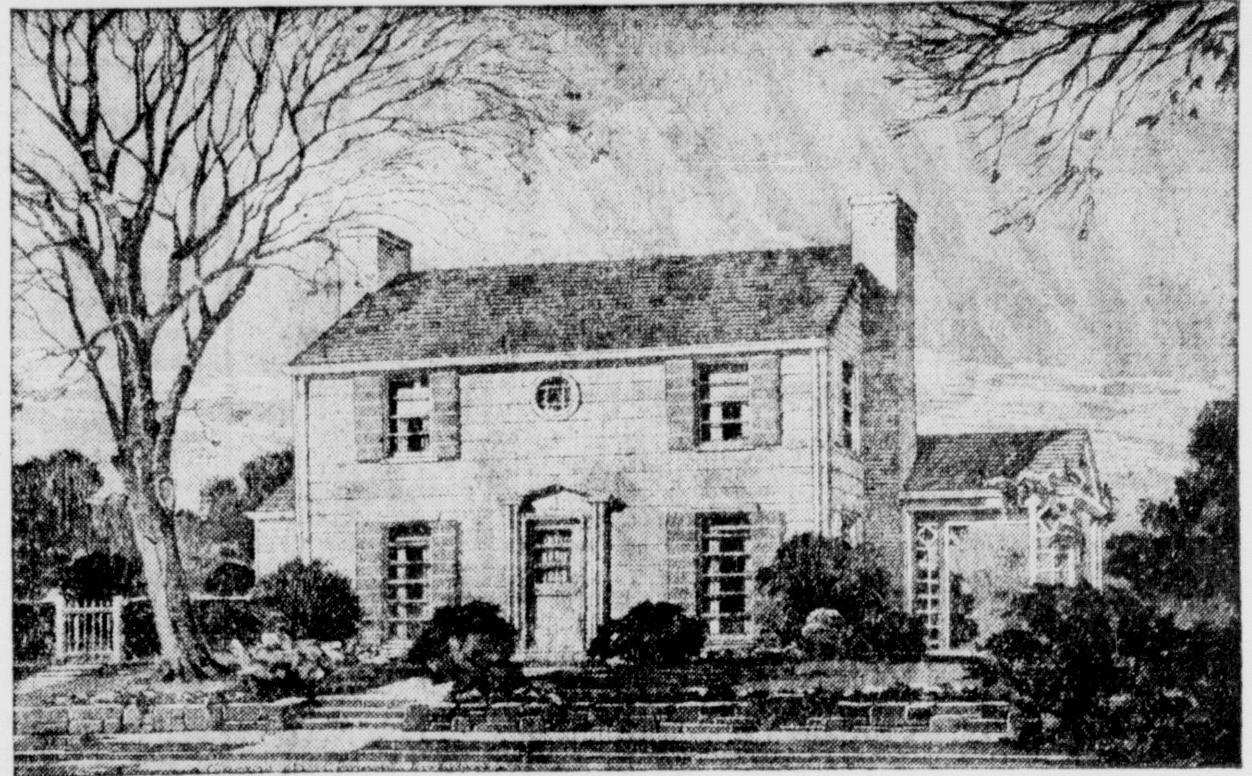

FIRST LEAVE HOME
David J. Caldwell, machinist's mate first class in the U. S. Navy, left Buffalo by plane Monday for San Francisco, Calif., after spending a 20-day leave with his wife and daughters at 16½ South South street, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Caldwell, at Roystone, and with other relatives and friends.

Graduate of Sheffield High School and former star football player there, he has many friends in Warren and Sheffield.

This was the first leave home for P. O. Caldwell, who left Warren on March 16, 1942, went overseas on April 9, 1942. During his 31 months overseas, he was engaged in 17 major campaigns in the southwest and central Pacific. He has been awarded two citations and the Purple Heart.

Raked Up By the Office Gang

An echo of a sit down strike at a conscientious objectors work camp at Kane some months ago was heard in federal court at Pittsburgh yesterday when a grand jury indicted four of the C. O.'s on charges of failure to perform duties assigned them. Where they're headed the boys won't have much of a chance to sit down.

Twelve cartons of cigarettes were sold yesterday for $108, at the Chicago postoffice's semi-annual sale of unclaimed goods. They cost the purchaser $8 1-3 cents a package. Lots of folks around Warren have paid more than that for a package of cigarettes—and they weren't sold at auction. A second batch of a dozen cartons was sold at the Chicago sale for $80 to a newspaper reporter.

The prospect for archers this coming deer season looks very encouraging. Pennsylvania Game officials announce. There are two archery preserves in the state—one being located in Hickory township, Forest county, about five miles north of the former site of Kelleetville, and the other in Sullivan county. Special permits, costing $2.00 each are required to hunt in these areas, which are set aside for bow and arrow hunters. Archers may hunt elsewhere on regular hunter's license. Deer have been attracted to these special areas from adjoining districts in large numbers because of the browse they can so easily secure from the tops of newly fallen timber.

Recent adjustments made by the Third Service Command to accommodate personnel of Camp Reynolds replacement depot at Indian-town Gap will not affect Pennsylvania State Guards' annual encampment, it is understood among guard officers. The command has ordered only the staging and assignment center—formerly at Indian-town Gap—transferred to Camp Pickett, Va. No date has been set for Company 11 1945 encampment as yet but all men and officers will be required to take annual training at Indian-town Gap for a two-week period during the summer, it is pointed out.

For some reason or other there seems to be no let down in the number of ration books being lost by persons in this area. New books cannot be issued in less than thirty days, and not unless the board, after consideration judges that the holder should have a new one. All persons wrongfully holding ration books—those belonging to another person—are subject to $10,000 fine or ten years imprisonment. It is not a case of "finders keepers" when you recover a ration book that has been lost.

Many Items Before BPW Membership At Thanksgiving Meeting and Program

More than 50 members and guests attended the November dinner-meeting of the Warren Business and Professional Women's Club, held last evening at the Y. W. C. A. activities building.

The long table was decorated in a Thanksgiving theme with fruit basket center, gourds and greens, bittersweet and matching candles. A turkey place card for each added the final touch.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Beecher M. Rutledge, rector of Trinity Memorial Episcopal church, who appeared on the evening's program and, with Mrs. Rutledge, was a guest at dinner.

Introducing the program were Emma Atkins and May Belle Baisow. Mr. Rutledge spoke briefly on what should be done to insure the future security of this country, making sure that we do not win the war and lose the peace, and naming three things as the stones which might possibly wreck our ship of state: Self-seeking, racial prejudice and Godlessness. He read letters from service men in the battle areas, revealing how they have found the meaning of religion under fire and the value of the monies spent in years past in foreign mission work. These letters served as a preface for the showing of a missionary film, "We Too Receive", in which a missionary-educated native rescues an American flier shot down by Japs and, with others of his tribe, convey the wounded to safety on foot.

Assisting with the showing of the film was Jay Pees, local forestry expert, who also contributed two forest films dealing with wood for war and for peace and vigilance for victory in preservation of the forests.

For the business session, President Louise Neely called for reports from Violet Peterson and Inez Leake and read a letter from Mrs. T. L. Armstrong in appreciation of gifts of the members and the club to the Christmas Fund for Deshon Army Hospital at Butler. A collection was taken to assist the club's "family" at the Hoffman Home and it was voted to exchange gifts at the Christmas meeting in December. Evelyn Wolstencroft will be in charge of that meeting, scheduled December 12.

A report given by Lila Schuler showed the club membership again 100% in its response to the Needlework Guild membership collection, 100 garments and the sum of $2.50 having been collected by the director. Miss Neely spoke of the prominent part the Warren Club is to have in entertaining the state convention at Allegheny Club next April and plans were discussed. A letter from the state president commended the club for its membership gain this year, its quota having been exceeded through recent additions.

Complete Cast Is Secured For "Our Town", Players' Ambitious Undertaking

Director Ann Hyatt and Assistant Director Margaret Wright announce that casting has been completed for "Our Town", the Warren Players' second major production of the season, to be presented on December 7 and 8.

Playgoers will learn with pleasure that Byron Knapp, able and popular veteran of the Players, has been selected for the leading role, the narrator or "Stage Manager" whose homely conversations with the audience guide the play's action along its absorbing course. This promises to be one of the most engaging characterizations of Mr. Knapp's career on the local stage.

Gloria Valone as Emily Webb and Robert Wilder as George Gibbs are similarly excellent choices for two of the play's most appealing roles. Dr. Hilding Bengt, a newcomer to the Warren Players' active lists, has been secured for the part of "Our Town's" Dr. Gibbs, a portrayal of the universally known and beloved family physician or every American town.

Carl Johnson, another recent and talented addition to the Players' roster, takes the part of Mr. Webb, the town's newspaper editor, Margaret Knoll as Mrs. Webb and Gerda Lawrence as Mrs. Gibbs competently assume compassionate and moving roles, while George "Barney" Senger has been commended from his traditionally unrewarded service as the Players' behind-the-scenes stage manager to take the spotlight as Simon Stimpson, a choir-master whose actions provide much material for the town's gossip.

Completing the large cast are other favorites and a number of newcomers: Arthur Langdon, Dick Blair, Barbara Boynton, Joe Duellhart, Bob Trusler, Althea Correll, Dave Smith, Bill Hill, Jr., Kenneth Graham, Tom Conway, John Robertson, John Knapp, Kathleen Simmons, Georgia Spinney, Jane Mumm, Gladys Young, Mary Margaret Wade, Joyce Erickson, Alice Decker, Donald Dumond, Roberta Decker, and Jack Wolstencroft.

With the difficult task of casting so well and carefully completed, Directors Hyatt and Wright have now turned their full attention to rehearsals, which will be held almost nightly from now until the opening night of "Our Town."

WHY QUINTUPLETS
use this great rub for SORE THROAT COUGHS & COLDS

Wonderful for Grown-Ups, Too! Ever since they were tiny tots—when the Quinuplets catch cold—their chests, throats and backs are immediately rubbed with Musterole.

Musterole gives such blessed prompt relief because it's more than just an ordinary "salve." It's what so many Doctors and Nurses call a modern counter-irritant. It not only relieves coughs, sore throat, aching chest muscles due to colds, makes breathing easier—but it actually helps break up congestion in upper bronchial tract, nose and throat.

And Musterole is so much easier to apply than a mustard plaster. White, Stainless. Just rub it on! No fumes. No mess with Musterole!

First Story Hour for Grade School Children Tomorrow

The free tickets are going as rapidly as the proverbial hotcakes for the opening story hour of this season at the public library. The first story hour for boys and girls of the 4th, 5th and 6th grades opens tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, with Mrs. Betty Archibald telling the stories. The next day at the same time, Mrs. Archibald will conduct a story period for younger children, of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd grades.

Admission will be by ticket only. Because of the unprecedented response of children in the community at the public library's story hours last year, the library is trying this new plan to accommodate the boys and girls and present different stories for each age level.

Last year the attendance at a single story hour reached a peak of over 500, the day the above group was photographed in the Children's Department.

"Appreciation Party" For Russell M. D.

The program is being arranged in a manner that will provide royal entertainment and genuine sociability for all who attend and plans are being made for a capacity crowd. The public is cordially invited. During the evening refreshments will be served.

Dr. VerMylen, in his 74th year, is one of the oldest practicing physicians in the county. Possessed of a genial personality and self-sacrificing devotion he numbers his friends by those who have had the good fortune to make his acquaintance.

Co. Farmer Scares Away Night Hunters

A resident of Tidoute, Route 3, who desires to be known only as "A Man from Excelsior" writes as follows:

"Last Thursday night I was awakened by shots fired about 200 feet above my house. I got up, obtained my flashlight and investigated."

"I found a car parked with a spotlight and two men were shooting at deer in my orchard. When I went in their direction they tried to drive me back. One man said he was a game warden from Pittsburgh and warned me not to take a gun out of the house, for he was coming to search the place."

"I returned to the house, got my shotgun and started toward my orchard. The men threw stones at me and when I snapped off the flashlight they began shooting. I waited until they quit, then I fired a shot into the air. They took for the car and left in a hurry."

"They had their license plate covered, but did not cover their faces."

The writer gave the residence of one man and name of the other. He did not say whether he had communicated with a game official.

Hangman Now the Headman?

Is the mouthpiece now the mouth? Is the Hangman of the Gestapo now the iron hand that rules the destiny of Germany? Island Song

by Owen Atkinson

Chapter 1
THE brass cannon on Punch-bowl Hill boomed a thunderous welcome. At the fort, a chain of bright flags climbed the tall pole, a signal that a foreign ship was entering Honolulu harbor.

The sleepy little town came to life with bustling activity. It was early, just after dawn, but already merchants were taking down their shutters and plodding on their way to the waterfront. The arrival of a vessel of any kind was an event in Honolulu in 1848 and it was no different now. The merchantman now entering the channel was no other than the Vanity, out of Salem, bringing a cargo of cast-iron pipe for the king's new water works.

With yards back, her rigging warming with sailors, the Vanity oiled sedately down the narrow channel. A hawser had been tossed ashore and three teams of oxen moving oiled plodded along the tow-path, dragging the ship slowly through the line of breakers, past the giant coral heads to the blue basin of the harbor.

The Vanity, a tall white barkentine, heavy cargoed, rode deep in the water. From her foremast fluttered the flag of the Hawaiian monarchy; from aft floated the thirteen bars and thirty stars of the United States of America. The house pennant of Blake & company trailed lazily at the stern. On the poop deck aft the first house, a giant Kanaka pilot, only costume a twist of turkey red calico, gripped the wheel in powerful hands. Beside him stood the master and the first mate, captain Jason Blake and his other, Caleb.

"HEY had the same square-cut look about them, the same likeness, their faces brown and weathered by the five months' passage around the Horn. But here Jason was tall and lean with a thin, eager face, inquisitive, dancing eyes and a sardonic smile. Caleb was broad and short of serious, with a bullet head and a solid, well-set jaw. Where Jason was fair, with curls over a high forehead, Caleb was dark with straight black hair plaited into a short queue at the nape of his neck, in sailor fashion.

Both men studied the harbor as they activity, for this was their first trip to the Sandwich Islands and many glamorous stories were told in fabled cabin concerning the little kingdom of eight islands, anchored like bright green islands in the blue Pacific.

"I'd best go ashore and call on a premier," Jason announced. Caleb nodded, shading his eyes with his hand and studying the harbor ahead. "Plenty of Ceph to a sand bottom," he mused. "I'll drop the hook well out and carry to a berth later. Find reports little or no tide but a squall catches us, the anchor'll drag."

Jason crossed to the rail and ered down into the transparent water. A swarm of canoes had put out from shore and now floated out the Vanity, their brown-skinned occupants gazing eagerly upward at the towering sides of the vessel. But what attracted Jason's attention were the bobbing heads of swimmers making their way between the canoes, splashing alongside the ship, clutching the trailing ropes and the dangling rope-ladder which had been let down when the pilot came aboard. "Girls" — Jason called his brother and pointed. "I've heard of the custom. Native girls swim out to welcome the ship."

Brown bodies jeweled with sea water they swarmed up the side of the Vanity... white teeth flashing, eyes inviting.

Caleb looked over the side just as one dripping brown maiden clutched the rope ladder and swung herself clear of the water. He grunted and turned hurriedly away for as far as he could see, the young woman wore only wreaths of flowers about her neck and the same brief calico loin cloth as affected the pilot.

THE Vanity cleared the channel and glided out into the harbor. The oxen were unhitched and the hawser pulled in. Caleb went forward to tend the anchor. Jason crossed to the pilot's side to take over the ship when the hook went down. And then the Vanity suddenly swarmed with girls. Up over the sides they came, a flutter of bright color, brown bodies jeweled with sea water. They dropped to the deck laughing and chattering, shaking water from their hair, pattering about inquisitively, smiling, plump, flower-scented, amiable. Jason grinned as he saw the crew swarm down out of the rigging like monkeys. When a man reached the deck he was immediately surrounded by a bevy of laughing girls, white teeth flashing, eyes inviting. From up forward Jason could hear Caleb's roar of anger and shouted orders to which nobody paid any attention.

They were like children, these Hawaiian maidens, naive, laughing and innocent. One dimpled miss stood on the main hatch, calmly removed her loin cloth and wrung it out, smiling gaily at the ring of startled New England faces about her.

Caleb came bustling aft, long arms swinging, lashing orders right and left, scattering the groups about the deck. "Over the side, you hussies!" he roared. "Step lively now. Over you go. Every last one of you. 'Tis a God-fearing ship's company and we'll have no carryings on aboard the Vanity."

Reluctantly, puzzled, understanding the tone if not the words of Caleb's commands, the girls went over the rail. One by one they dropped into the water, their long black hair trailing behind like plumes of smoke, and swam to the waiting canoes. The Vanity, then, was different from the usual merchant ship or whaler which found its way into Honolulu harbor? Usually, the plump, brown swimmers were greeted with shouts of joy and given presents and there would be casks of ale or rum broached on deck and music and singing and dancing while the crews made merry and forgot the long weary months spent at sea.

He also referred to a news item released yesterday by the Office of Defense Transportation which contained this warning: "The nation's transportation facilities are so overburdened that delivery of gift parcels by December 25 can not be assured unless they are dispatched before December 1st."

"The people of Warren gave the local Post Office excellent cooperation in the recent overseas Christmas mailing campaign," said Mr. Bell, and we again solicit their help and cooperation to assure the success of this all important matter of the prompt and safe delivery of the domestic Christmas mail." He also outlined the following helpful mailing suggestions:

- 1—Mail not later than December 1, mark package "DO NOT OPEN UNTIL CHRISTMAS".
- 2—Space your mailings. Do not mail all on same day.
- 3—Address plainly and correctly on wrapper. Repeat address on package inside wrapper. Include return address.
- 4—Wrap securely using strong container and heavy paper and twine.
- 5—Insure all packages. The new rate begins at 3c for $5 value.

JUVENILES NOISY

The balmy weather for this time of the year may have had something to do with the fact that the police had an unusually large number of complaints last evening regarding children's pranks. Not any of them was serious, however, and it was not necessary to resort to stern measures.

ILLNESS CLOSES SCHOOL

Development of several cases of scarlet fever in the schools in Kerrtown and Fredericksburg, Vernon township, over the last week-end caused the school board to close all schools in the township. It was said that none of the cases was serious and that the schools might be reopened later this week.

RUNAWAY FREIGHT CARS

A string of three freight cars which broke away from the train at Corry Monday night "ran away" through the city, passing over all grade crossings of the Erie railroad in the town without causing an accident although one automobile narrowly missed being struck at the Maple avenue crossing.

PUMPKIN HONORS

Policeman Raymond H. Sweitzer, of Olean, evidently has won all big pumpkin honors for the season, so far as published reports indicate. He has placed a pumpkin on exhibition in that city which weighs 97½ pounds, stands 28 inches high and is 65 inches around. The Olean officer produced the prize winner in his garden at Olean.

HERE FOR FUNERAL

Relatives here today to attend the funeral of Mrs. Dewey Somers include the following who are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Erickson, Franklin street: Burton C. Erickson, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. W. A. Gunkler, Ayer, Mass.; Miss Geraldine Erickson, Cleveland, O.; Miss Eleanor Johnson, Philadelphia; Mrs. H. C. Gibson, New York City. Miss Jean Erickson, also of Cleveland, returned to her training last evening after spending the weekend at home.

MAY REDUCE SALARIES

Dr. Francis B. Haas, state superintendent of public instruction, says that a Justice Department ruling permitted a school district in serious financial difficulties to reduce salaries of teachers on a uniform basis and still be eligible for salary boosts granted teachers by the 1943 legislature. Dr. Haas had asked for the ruling when an unnamed school district reported a contemplated reduction in all salaries for high schools to a maximum-minimum of $1600 prescribed by law for the district.

The fighting around Metz, a city of 64,000 which never has been taken by storm in modern times, appeared to be rushing toward a swift and totally unanticipated climax. A front dispatch said the fall of the city appeared to be but a matter of days, if not hours. The Americans have narrowed the escape gap to the east of Metz to some eight miles.

Front dispatches late last night said advance elements were inside Augny, two miles south and slightly west of Metz.

Supreme headquarters did not confirm Paris and Algiers broadcasts reporting the capture of Thionville, the heavily fortified steel center 16 miles north of Metz. For several weeks American troops have held the part of Thionville on the west bank of the Moselle river, with the Germans clinging to the eastern half of the city.

Above Thionville, at the northern extremity of the Third Army front, the 90th Infantry Division expanded its Koenigsmacher bridgehead over the Moselle to Langrange, 3 1/2 miles southeast of Koenigsmacher, and linked up with a smaller new bridgehead to the north.

The British quickly established bridgeheads over two canals in the area in the early hours of the drive, which was officially reported "going well after initial successes."

Seven miles northeast of Nederweert, British patrols entered Meijel and found that the Germans, who had employed some 50 tanks to capture the town a few weeks ago, had fled. Elind, a village 1 1/2 miles southeast of Nederweert, also was seized.

Rules on Rent Are Clarified By OPA Office

Recent amendments to the Rent Regulations place restrictions on the demand and receipt of security deposits by landlords and hotel and rooming house operators. It was announced today by the Erie OPA Office. These amendments clarify previous limitations on security deposits and prepayment of rent.

In outlining the new provisions, Frank S. Anderson, District Rent Executive, defined the term "security deposits" to include, in addition to its customary meaning, any prepayment of rent in excess of one month in advance.

Where landlords require a security deposit on the maximum rent date, Anderson stated, "they may continue to do so on the same terms and conditions as those provided by the lease or rental agreement in effect on that date." He pointed out that, if such lease or rental agreement did not provide for a security deposit, the landlord may not retain the amount so collected but must return it to the tenant.

He also pointed out that no security deposits may be required or retained for newly constructed priority housing. Landlords who can establish special need for a deposit covering movable articles such as keys and ice trays, Mr. Anderson said, may petition OPA or an order authorizing a deposit from a tenant, not to exceed $10, to secure the return of such objects.

Any landlords who are in doubt as to the application of the restrictions on security deposits should consult their local area rent office or further information.

Eastern Area of the American Red Cross has reported an "immediate and urgent" need for men to serve as assistant field directors in the Red Cross overseas program.

A total of 500 men is needed at once, but the quota assigned to the Eastern Area headquarters is 100. DIVISION FREIGHT AGENT
J. D. Finley, Division freight agent at San Francisco, has been promoted to Division freight agent at Erie, the Pennsylvania Railroad announced today. Mr. Finley will succeed J. A. Prince, who has been advanced to New England freight agent at Boston after two years in Erie. The appointment is effective November 16.

PLANT VACCINE
Dietary sodium bisulfite, when applied to the ground, is absorbed by food-producing plants and immunizes them from insect and fungi attacks. In recent tests, potato production has been increased from 25 to 100 bushels an acre with its use.

Mars Boy Is Most Decorated Enlisted Yankee in Germany

By HAL BOYLE

With American Troops in Germany, Nov. 5—(Delayed)—(P)—
The only soldier along the front currently wearing two black eyes from playing football inside the Siegfried Line is also probably the most wounded and most decorated American enlisted man now fighting in Germany.

He is First Sgt. Darwin Purvis, 27, of Mars, Pa., who has fought in more than 40 tank engagements in 26 months overseas in Africa, Sicily and Europe.

"And I would rather fight in 40 more than go through another day like I did once when I moved up on foot with the infantry," he said recently during a day off from the front.

Purvis, built like a boiler-maker, isn't the type who likes to sport his medals but even his barrel chest would be hard put to find room for all his ribbons if he ever decided to pin them all on at once.

For four battle wounds, he has the purple heart with three clusters. For valor, he has the distinguished service cross, croix de guerre with gold palm, and croix de guerre with silver palm, the silver star and bronze star. For other reasons, he holds the presidential unit citation ribbon, American defense ribbon, good conduct ribbon and the ETO ribbon with six stars.

Purvis also could be an officer
if loyalty to his company buddies in the 17th tank battalion hadn't seen him turn down a commission because it automatically meant he would have to transfer to another outfit.

Purvis has had six tanks shot from under him but he still looks upon another scrap in the same way he looks forward to a football game. It keeps him up.

"It's just a job more or less,"
is his elemental fighting philosophy. "You're scared stiff until it starts—but it's your job and you have got to do it because there is nobody to do your job but you."

Most veterans look back upon their first campaign as the one they enjoyed most. So does Pur-vis. He liked fighting in Tunisia—particularly the time he spent worlding with goums, natives of French Morocco.

"They went into battle in native dress—it looks like a striped bath-robe," he said. "They were wonderful doughboys. We used to ride them a mile inside the German lines on our tanks and they would jump off and fight their way back, killing every German they met on the way."

Purvis remembers as his own toughest experience the day he spent with the infantry after his tank was knocked out near Montebourg, France, by a German 40mm.
gun that pumped seven shells through his turret at 300 yards.

"We lost eight out of ten tanks that day," he said. "But we stopped them. My gunner was killed, my loader was hurt so bad that he died soon afterward and both me and my bow gunner were wounded."

"I was hit in the leg and lay on the ground with snipers picking at me until I got a chance to break for the hedgerows. I saw one of our doughboys that had been knocked off, so I picked up his rifle and joined up with the infantry. I fought with them until we broke up the Jerry counter-attacks and everything was secure."

"What a day that was! You don't have the same feeling of security with the infantry. You miss that armor around you."

Letters to the Editor

Nov. 13, 1944.

Warren Times-Mirror.
After reading a letter in today's Times-Mirror I would like very much to describe my experience of Election day last Nov. 7, 1944.

I am an American, a tax payer,
a property owner, and a registered Republican.

Always having donated for every worthy cause, yet when I went to polls at Sheffield last Tuesday I was denied my right to vote. For this reason, mind you, I had moved to Barnes, approximately two

WIDE RANGE IN VARIETY OF HOME-MADE GIFTS

Home-made Christmas gifts are always acceptable because of the personal touch involved. For the woman who likes to sew, there are many possibilities in the gift line this season, says Mrs. Prendergast, home economics extension representative, Warren County.

Remnants or short lengths of new fabrics are a real treasure house for small gift suggestions.
Dickies have been popular for several years, so why not try a topper or weskit which can be worn over a dress. A gay plaid or stripe is effective. Velvet or corduroy also is good and where more warmth is needed a wool fabric may be used. A topper or weskit would be most acceptable if you considered a particular outfit with which it might be worn. Five-eighths of a yard of material is enough for a topper.

With the importance attached to costume blouses this year, you might make a blouse for a gift.
You need about 1 1/2 to 2 yards of material for a blouse, depending on the style and length of sleeves.
A satin, crepe, or taffeta blouse would provide a dressy change for winter wear as would wool or rayon jersey. A sheer cotton lingerie type blouse, trimmed with lace, would be just the thing wear with a spring suit.

A scarf is always a good gift but it should be chosen with definite outfit in mind. Washable white crepe or satin makes a us-ful scarf, and to make it more personal embroider an initial on it.
For a very glamorous scarf for evening wear, sprinkle sequins over a scarf or chiffon or georgette.
